Determined to Put the Measure Thru This Week Despite the Attitude of Speaker Gillett—Mondell Heads Delegation to the President—Issues Statement Afterward

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Balked in their desire to get the measure up today under a suspension of the rules, Republican house leaders in charge of the compromise soldiers' bonus bill still were determined tonight to put the measure thru this week. Their expressed intention was to call it up Thursday under a suspension of the rules, if possible, otherwise under a special rule, which probably would shut off amendments. Before the house met today the situation was laid before President Harding by a committee of house leaders but the executive declined to make any recommendation. Upon leaving the president's office Representative Mondell who headed the committee issued this written statement:

"The legislative situation relating to the bonus bill was fully presented to the president, with detailed explanation of the provisions which remove the menace of excessive drafts of the treasury in the immediate future and avoid a program of added taxation.

Senator Lodge Takes Floor to Defend His Motives

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Senate debate on the four power Pacific treaty touched its high water mark of bitterness today in an exchange resulting from suggestion of a secret British-American understanding for future cooperation. Aroused by recurring references to such an international understanding after its existence had been directly denied, Senator Lodge, Republican leader and a member of the arms delegation took the floor and in a voice shaken by emotion declared he could no longer be patient under attacks which seemed to question his patriotism and impugn his honor.

Replying in a fashion scarcely less dramatic Senator Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas, an opponent of the treaty told the senate he questioned no one's motives but proposed to do his patriotic duty as he saw it without permitting himself to be "intimidated by outbursts of indignation."

He remained convinced, he said, that both of the senate's representatives on the delegation "were amazingly ignorant of some things done at the conference."

This exchange which was part of a long debate soon broadcast with charges of "slander," "untruths" and "propaganda" took place shortly after Mr. Lodge and other prominent figures in his party organization had canvassed the whole treaty situation with President Harding. Besides Mr. Lodge, those who were present included Chairman John T. Adams of the Republican national committee, Senator McCormick of Illinois, chairman of the party's senatorial campaign committee and Senator Curtis of Kansas, Republican whip of the senate.

Some of the senators who attended said the primary purpose was to give Mr. Harding the latest information as to the lineup on the four power treaty ratification vote to be taken Friday.

It was said the president reiterated his acceptance of the

BEGINS PROBE OF ALLEGED TRAFFIC DOCTOR'S LICENSES

Investigation Ordered Yesterday by Governor Len Small

(By The Associated Press)

LA SALLE, Ill., March 20.—An investigation of charges that there has been traffic in physicians' licenses, pharmacists' certificates and other similar permits was ordered by Governor Small tonight.

A committee proposed of Dr. J. D. Ebersson, former health commissioner of Chicago; Dr. I. D. Rawlings, state director of health and Dr. W. L. Noble, trustees of the University of Illinois, was named by the Governor to "investigate rumors and determine whether or not there has been any partiality or dishonesty."

A statement requesting a full investigation without "fear or favor" was issued by the government.

Miller Declines Comment

Springfield, March 20.—William Harry Harrison Miller, director of the department of registration and education, declined tonight to comment on reports of alleged "leaks" in his department thru which copies of pharmacy and other examinations are said to have reached applicants in advance of examinations for state licenses.

Mention of Miller's name in connection with the alleged scandal brought from him only the remark "I can only repeat what I said in Chicago last week that I welcome an investigation of my department."

A subordinate in Miller's office was discharged by the director last summer in connection with a similar leak, Miller asserting at the time that any employee of his department found guilty of selling examination questions would be dismissed.

Altho he declared that he did not want to discuss any of the reports, including a rumor that his resignation was imminent, Director Miller announced that he has notified members of the state medical examining board under the jurisdiction of his department that they will be required to write and personally have printed and delivered sealed at the examination questions for the medical tests at Chicago next Monday.

Formerly the questions were written by the board and copies made in the department offices, Mr. Miller said. His last ruling, he asserted is for the purpose of reducing the possibilities of leaks and for narrowing the responsibility for questions down to the minimum number of persons.

Members of the medical examining board to whom Mr. Miller said he sent these instructions today are, Dr. L. C. Taylor, Springfield; Dr. E. L. Demmon, Effingham; Dr. Gilbert Fitzpatrick, Chicago; Dr. H. P. Beltrac, Quincy and J. R. Pennington of Chicago.

No Party Conference

"Tomorrow we shall reach a decision as to when and how the measure will be brought up for consideration. There will be no party conference."

Asked if the bill would come up this week, the floor leader said: "Oh, undoubtedly, probably not later than Thursday."

Chairman Campbell of the rules committee said the idea was to dispose of the bill on Thursday, but with liberal debate.

In their meeting with the speaker the members went over the whole situation fairly fully. Representative Lineberger of California wanted a party conference called to thresh out the bonus question and the speaker was represented as favoring this procedure. Others opposed such a plan arguing that this would open up the whole bill to change. Mr. Lineberger finally agreed not to press for a conference and after further discussion it was decided to leave until tomorrow the final decision by the speaker as to procedure. Attending the white house conference which lasted nearly two hours where Mr. Mondell, Chairman Fordney, of the ways and means committee, Chairman Campbell of the rules committee, Chairman Towne of the house conference; Chairman Fess

AMERICAN TROOPS WILL ALL BE OUT OF GERMANY JULY 1

Secretary Weeks Issues Orders Under Harding's Direction

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 20.—All American troops will be out of Germany by July 1 under orders issued by Secretary Weeks today by direction of President Harding. About 2,000 officers and men are directly affected as the remainder of Major General Allen's command in the Coblenz bridge head zone on the Rhine already were under home orders.

Secretary Weeks said the step was ordered in compliance with the policy previously announced of withdrawing the Rhine forces as quickly as possible. It had no relation, he said, to the wrangle in congress over further reduction of the size of the army nor did it result from the correspondence between the state department and the allied commissions over the American demand for a share in German reparations payments on account of the maintenance of troops in Germany.

The original order of the president it was pointed out directed that all troops on the Rhine with the exception of not more than the single infantry regiment and artillery and other auxiliary detachments be brought home in arm transports as rapidly as possible. The movement is now in progress and the work of the two transports running in the service will be continued under today's execution. Mr. Weeks said until the remaining troops have been returned which will be before July 1. The secretary made no explanation of steps that would be taken to turn the Coblenz sector over to the allied commanders for policing and to hold the bridgehead as a means for further advances into Germany to enforce treaty obligations. The three bridgehead positions were taken up under the armistice terms for this purpose and their occupation confirmed in the treaty of Versailles and the treaty between the United States and Germany.

She obtained a room in a lodging house in which she was found under an assumed name and later found a position as clerk in a broker's office at $18 a week.

This morning, she said, she found just 5 cents in her purse and after hesitating as to whether to buy a newspaper or a cup of coffee, bought the coffee and walked into the business district. She said she had not seen newspaper accounts of her disappearance; that her decision to earn her own living was just a lark and that she wanted to be "independent."

POSTOFFICE BILL BRINGS ON HEATED FIGHT IN SENATE

Carries $63,309,000 More Than That Passed by House

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The postoffice appropriation bill carrying $623,773,000 was passed today by the senate after a heated fight. The measure carries $63,309,000 more than as passed by the house, $50,000,000 of the increase going for federal highway aid.

The $50,000,000 addition was accepted by the senate without a debate or without a roll call.

Turning the debate to increase the number of postal inspectors from 420 to 520 the senate defeated an amendment by Senator McKelch to increase the number only 30 instead of 100. Senator Harrison's charges of politics around the Republicans and Chairman Townsend on the post-office committee informed the senate that there was pending some 47,000 claims and protests in the postal service and he believed the additional inspectors would have the government as much as $10,000,000 a year in cleaning up those cases.

Discuss Appointments.

From the subject of claims against the government the debate went into the filling of vacancies in postmastership and here politics again was charged.

Senator Moses Republican, New Hampshire replied to statements by Mr. Harrison that the administration wanted to use the new inspectors to find ways of rooting Democrats out of jobs.

"If the president listened to me about that," he said, "he would have written one executive order taking out from civil service every job put under it by Woodrow Wilson. The Democrats are yapping because they fear some of their office holders are going to lost in favor of every administration being surrounded by its friends and we have examples now of Democrats left in berths throwing monkey wrenches into machinery and handicapping the service."

Senator Edge, Republican, New Jersey, added that the Democrats had put out the Republicans without the formality of an inspection and therefore did not need so many inspectors. He said that former postmaster general Burleson had been successful in the work.

POINCARÉ CONFIRMS PREVIOUS STATEMENT

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, March 20.—Premier Poincaré today announced confirmation of the statement he made recently to the finance committee of the chamber of deputies in executive session that France intends to pay her debt to the United States.

M. Poincaré's statement presumably was impelled by the utterance of M. Loucheur, former French minister of reconstruction in a speech at Lyons last month when he declared that France would never be able to pay a cent to the United States on the French war debt account.

SEND OUT FLOOD WARNING TO SOUTH

To night the river had almost reached the 35 foot stage here.

Kerr, assistant United States engineer said that levees in both the Memphis and Helena districts were in a condition to stand fifty feet of water without damage.

U. S. SUPREME COURT TO PASS UPON LAW REGULATING PACKERS

Highest Court Will Hear Oral Argument on the Act of 1921 Which Provides Regulation of Stock Yard Traders—Packers Attorney Says That Congress Has Trespassed

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 20.—A case of importance involving the effort of the federal government to regulate stock yard traders in the packers' act of 1921 was reached for oral argument in the supreme court today. The case has come up on appeal from the United States district court at Chicago in two cases, one brought by T. B. Stafford and others and the second by James E. Burton and others, the decision of the lower court being favorable to the government.

The packers and stock yards act is being attacked by the traders on the grounds that the livestock reaching stock yards has completed every phase of interstate commerce upon delivery to the commission merchants from whom the traders buy and that no act of the traders is in interstate commerce or so intimately related to it as to give the federal government any control over them.

E. G. Goodman appeared as counsel for Stafford and Levy Mayer for Burton, the latter not having concluded his argument when the court adjourned.

They contended that traders' transaction in livestock in the stock yards consisted solely of purchasing in speculation, livestock which had been shipped in to the commission merchants Mr. Mayer saying the traders were "speculators" who purchased in the hope of selling at a higher price.

The livestock upon the arrival at the stock yards was placed without grading they said in pens assigned the commission merchants and when purchased by the traders, was weighed and paid for and driven to pens assigned the traders by the stock yards company.

Says Congress Trespasses.

"Congress has been trespassing since the war in its encroachments upon the states," asserted Mr. Mayer and has reached its apex in this act.

He stated that the two thousand dealers in the various stock yards were engaged in business which was of good value to live stock growers in assuring them a competitive market. These dealers, he asserted acted independently and while the supreme court had held the stock yards company at Chicago to be a common carrier, that did not have the effect of causing every transaction in the yards to take on such a character.

The government today filed a brief prepared by Solicitors General Beck and Blackburn of the department of justice will present oral argument tomorrow. The government contended, that the transactions of the traders form a part of the great current of interstate commerce flowing into the stock yards, the enormity of which it emphasized by statistics showing that 15,423,872 head of livestock valued at $65,421,232 reached the Union Stock Yards at Chicago in 1920 and that the value of livestock arriving there in 1921 was over $500,000,000 to say nothing of livestock reaching other large stock yards. One third of the livestock arriving at the Chicago yards, the government asserted was sold to members of the traders exchange while moving in interstate commerce and those who received and in turn sold the livestock while so moving were subject to federal regulation.

PROMINENT MEN ARE SAID TO BE IN WHISKEY RING

Revenue Officers Uncover Bootleggers Trust in Florida

(By The Associated Press)

MIAMI, Fla., March 20.—Many prominent business men will be implicated in the financing of an extensive bootlegging ring whose operations have been directed from this city, Col. L. G. Nutt, representative of the internal revenue bureau declared tonight as the result of his investigation of conditions. Working with a staff of 40 investigators, Colonel Nutt uncovered conditions which led him to report today to Prohibition Commissioner Haynes that the openness in which illegal transactions in liquor had been carried on here had startled him.

A bootlegging ring whose contracts are backed by local bankers, and business men, he declared in this report had conducted large sales, their conveying the contraband from nearby foreign shores being a minor transaction compared with their program for putting it ashore and shipping it to northern ports. At the same time Colonel Nutt today gave evidence of his activity in attacking the situation by personally directing his forty aids in raids on 25 places and the arrest of 20 persons.

Colonel Nutt said it was a minor matter for many boats operating off the coast to bring in liquor from the Bahamas or to meet schooners off the Keys and make purchases. Bootleggers brazenly delivered this liquor to any place desired, he added.

Hate to See American Troops Leave Germany

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, March 20.—Regret over the prospective withdrawal of the American troops from the Rhine was expressed in French official circles today when the foreign office was unofficially informed by The Associated Press of the order for the return of the Rhine forces by July 1.

The order caused no surprise, some officials saying they quite expected that the Washington policy of continued decrease in the number of forces at Coblenz would finally mean complete withdrawal.

Before the news reached Paris the subject of the American demand for payment of the expenses of her troops on the Rhine had been discussed by officials of the foreign capital. It was said Premier Poincaré was disposed to take up the American demand in a most friendly spirit on the principle that it was a just claim in equity whatever legal tangles might exist between the American treaty with Germany and the treaty of Versailles.

Premier Poincaré was known to have been anxious for the American troops to continue in the occupation area because of the moral support their presence gave the allies. With the United States represented in the Rhine area, it was pointed out, occupation by the allied troops would not appear as purely a military measure and this would prevent the occupation from being used against the allies as a basis of charges of militarism.

Developements In Ulster Being Watched

By a recent court decision young John Dodge is to have $1,000,000 instead of the $150 a month allowance which the original will provided. Perhaps Mr. Dodge would really have been better off on the $150 basis.

A Peoria girl left home because her parents refused to permit her to have her hair bobbed. But then you can remember that murders have sometimes been committed for even less provocation.

A company has been organized and will proceed with the erection of an electrical plant near East St. Louis to cost $25,000,000. Evidently some men have a lot of money and also an abundance of faith in both the industrial future and in utilities as an investment.

The thought occurs that there is not much use in continuing the search for the murderer of Mr. Taylor, the movie producer at Hollywood—that is if the man charged with the murder is to be tried in California. It doesn't seem to be possible to get 12 jurors out there to agree upon the guilt or innocence of anybody tried for a capital crime.

A million gallons of oil have been purchased for the roads of Morgan county to be applied during the coming winter. It is possible that even a still larger quantity will be needed for the work in prospect. Road oiling has brought such satisfactory results in this county that even the interest in hard roads has lessened the enthusiasm over roadways that are well drained, dragged and oiled. The oiled roads have the advantage of giving the benefits now instead of in years to come.

The American claim against Germany for $241,000,000 on account of expenses of the army of occupation is solidly based, regardless of the fact that the United States did not sign the Versailles Treaty. This country was a party to the Armistice Agreement, and all the rights and privileges according to us thru that arrangement were preserved in the treaty between the United States and Germany.

Secretary Hughes has made no blunder in calling upon the allies to recognize our claim for reimbursement. He is quite aware of the rights of the United States in the premises, and he also knows of various ways in which the money can be collected. There may be some delay, but eventually those millions will come back to our own treasury.

COST OF PAVING COMPILED ON TYPES OF MATERIAL

Average costs per square yard of various types of paving for country roads have been compiled by the Bureau of Public Roads, United States Department of Agriculture. The figures cover $8,000,000 square yards of paving constructed with Federal aid in all parts of the United States during the period 1914-1921. The costs per square yard are as follows: Sand-clay, 18 cents; gravel, 46 cents; plain and surface-treated macadam, 95 cents; bituminous macadam, $2.10; bituminous concrete, $2.50; plain cement concrete, $2.75; reinforced-cement concrete, $2.74; and brick $4.10.

These figures cover only the cost of the paving; they do not include the cost of grading, and officials point out that it must not be assumed that roads of the several types can be constructed in any locality at these figures. For example, the cost of bituminous concrete varied from $1.70 in the New England states to $3.12 in the group of states including Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi and Alabama. In one group of states the cost of brick dropped to $2.40. Costs of constructing these types in the various groups of states have been compiled and can be obtained from the bureau.

Vocal and Violin Numbers at College of Music Presented With Great Ability.

The program given last evening by a number of advanced students of the Woman's College was an evidence of the sound teaching and careful study carried on in the music department of the college.

From the local department were heard Jane Brinton, Frederick Balch, Gwendolynne Schroyer, Mary Ballou in well chosen selections.

The violinists of the evening were Audrey Kink and Estelle Cover, who both ably represented their department. The fine organ pieces played by Olive Engle and Grace Styles were much appreciated by the audience, as were the piano solos by Marie Hunter, Velma Mitchell, Mamie Luke, Christine Cotner and Grace Terhune, who closed the program with the beautiful Fantaisie in C minor by Mozart-Grieg, assisted by her teacher, Florence Kirby, at the second piano.

Dr. Carl E. Black, Dean G. H. Scott, and President Rammelkamp returned recently from Chicago where they attended the annual banquet of the Chicago Alumni Society of Illinois College held last Friday evening. The banquet was one of the most successful reunions which the Chicago Society has ever held. As only in recent years, when a larger number of the alumni of the College have settled in Chicago, that the question has become at all a practical one for the Society to consider.

Resolutions introduced by H. J. Dunbaugh '99, were passed by a standing vote expressing the regret of the Society over the death of Mr. Thomas Worthington, who had often attended the meetings of the club in the past, and was well known to most of the members.

The club also considered the question of the establishment of an alumni periodical, citing its endorsement of the idea.

The chief speaker of the evening was Professor Edward Capps, '87, of Princeton, New Jersey, who delivered an address on "The Present Situation in Greece." It is doubtful whether any address ever given to the club was heard with greater interest or received with more enthusiastic applause.

Colonel Capps who, as is well known in Jacksonville, was head of the Red Cross Mission to Greece and later United States minister to that country, emphasized some of the same thoughts which he had presented to the New York Society a few weeks ago. He expressed his great admiration for Venizelos and urged a more sympathetic attitude in the United States towards Greece in her struggle with Turkey. He pointed out, in clear and emphatic language, that Greece's present war with Turkey was undertaken at the request of the allies. "Greece is virtually continuing to fight our war and to enforce our peace," said Dr. Capps. He emphasized again, what he mentioned in several previous addresses, that Greece is the only European country which has been regularly paying her interest on her debt to the United States.

While recognizing the mistakes which Greece had made, Dr. Capps insisted that the Greeks, like any other people, had a perfect right to make their own choice of a ruler. Greece, in his opinion, was the bulwark for order and civilization in the Near East, and unless Greece has the sympathy and support of the western nations, he predicted still greater confusion and chaos in the Near East than has yet been witnessed. He argued for an early recognition of the present government of Greece.

THE FUTURE OF THE COLLEGE

President Rammelkamp spoke on the subject "A Glimpse of the Future," and in the course of his remarks outlined to the club his plans for the future development of the College. Some years ago, the problem was to find sufficient students to fill the buildings and use the equipment of the College; now the problem is to secure additional buildings, equipment and faculty to provide instruction for a constantly increasing body of students. The College is, at present, nearly filled to its capacity, and there cannot be much further increase of students without additions to the equipment and faculty.

The president announced that the trustees had already authorized the appointment of an additional instructor in English for next year, and expressed the hope that within the next year or two, additional instructors might be appointed in such departments as political science and economics, chemistry and biology. To carry out the program presented by the president will require about one million and a quarter dollars and the hope was expressed that these plans might be achieved by the time of the centennial of the College in 1929. Great enthusiasm and applause was evoked when the president read the telegram from Professor Ames announcing that the freshmen and sophomore classes and the new members of the faculty had subscribed $3,726 last Friday to the new endowment fund.

Total subscriptions amounting to about $348,000 were announced as having now been made to the new fund of $375,000 which must be completed by Commencement if a loss of many thousand dollars of the new fund is to be avoided. No group of alumni in the country is more enthusiastic in its support of the College in its plans for the future development than is the Chicago Society.

A Group of Speakers.

John E. Kehoe, '88, served as toastmaster for the evening. Among the other speakers were Dr. Carl E. Black, '83; Dean G. H. Scott, of the College; Dean

Arthur D. Black, '92, of the Northwestern University; and Professor J. W. Putnam '94, vice-president of Butler College. Victor W. Nelson '00, was elected president for next year, and Edwin D. Jackson '05, was continued as the secretary.

PAVEY SUPPORTERS ARE BEHIND SEARCY

Adopt Resolutions at Mass Meeting at Glenarm, Sangamon County—Legislative Voters League Also Boosts Him.

Sangamon supporters of W. A. Pavey, who has withdrawn as a candidate for state senator on the Republican ticket have thrown the strength of his organization to Earl B. Searcy.

At a big mass meeting held in Glenarm recently the following resolutions endorsing Searcy's candidacy were adopted:

Urgo Vote for Searcy.

The resolution follows:

"Whereas, in meeting assembled this 18th day of March, 1932, we represent a loyal and earnest portion of the Republican party which looked with favor on the candidacy of William A. Pavey for the Republican nomination for state senator from this, the Forty-fifth senatorial district, and,

"Whereas, we know that Mr. Pavey was and is not only a party man, but a true blue American citizen of the highest type, who, if nominated and elected would have served well and conscientiously the district which would have elected him; and,

"Whereas, Mr. Pavey, after receiving assurances of our support, was compelled, because of the serious illness of his beloved wife, to withdraw of his own free will and accord from the senatorial primary contest; and,

"Whereas, the aforesaid personal conditions within his home were the only reasons actuating his withdrawal, now, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That we of the Republican party who have warmly accepted his candidacy, and who do hereby express our deep disappointment at the turn of circumstances that made Mr. Pavey's withdrawal expedient, feel that we want, as nearly as we can, to reflect the wishes of Mr. Pavey in this campaign; and in pursuance of this policy, therefore,

"Be It Further Resolved, That we do hereby extend to Earl B. Searcy, a young soldier who had taken occasion to speak a kindly word for Mr. Pavey wherever he went, our support in his race for the senatorial nomination, knowing, as we do, that Mr. Searcy's conduct of his campaign has been, and is, clean and in keeping with the tactics employed by Mr. Pavey, his friend; and, in taking this stand, which we know is satisfactory to Mr. Pavey, therefore,

"Be It Further Resolved, That we do hereby accord to Representative Earl B. Searcy our wholehearted support between now and the primary on April 11, recognizing in Mr. Searcy a man who is personally and politically clean, who is fearless and independent in pursuit of what he believes is right, and whose only term in the house of representatives has proved him to be a public official in whom the citizens of this senatorial district can well afford to place their deepest confidence. (Signed)

"A. E. Petefish, Chairman,
"J. F. Wilson,
"A. C. Baxter,
"George Despain,
"E. E. Goodwin,
"Committee from Sangamon County 'Pavey for Senator' organization."

Legislative League Also. The Assembly Bulletin, official publication of the Legislative League of the state of Illinois, also speaks highly of Mr. Searcy. Speaking of the men who represented the Forty-fifth senatorial district, the Bulletin says:

"John A. Wheeler, senator. (Rep.); physician, Springfield. Ending first term; rather capable, was one of Governor Small's most active supporters during the last session; introduced the anti-Child Service bill, by which the administration struck at the life of the State merit system by exempting 2,000 positions from the operation of the State Civil Service law; also actively supported other objectionable Thompson-Small measures.

"Jacob Frisch, representative. (Rep.); druggist, Springfield. Ending third term; obtained legislation creating a State bureau to aid in the recovery of stolen motor vehicles; a reliable and capable legislator who made a very good record.

"Earl B. Searcy, representative. (Rep.); newspaper writer, Springfield. Ending first term; showed marked independence and ability; was one of the members who protested sharply against improper lobbying methods; aided in inducing the Legislature to make provision for the care and education of children of Service men; made an excellent record."

Now my face is pinkish, my skin clear as a rose, my cheeks are filled out and my rheumatism, too, is gone!" This will be your experience, too, if you try S. S. S. RULING MAY BE MADE SOON AS TO WAGE QUESTIONS

Head of Shop Crafts Unions Finishes His Testimony

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, March 20.—Demanding an official ruling on whether the railroads had held proper conferences with their employees before bringing their wage reduction controversies to the railroad labor board B. M. Jewell, head of the shop crafts unions, finished his testimony today and asked an adjournment until a ruling is made by the board. Mr. Jewell ended a week of continuous reading of minutes reporting wage conferences with shop committees on various roads. He charged that they were typical of conferences on all roads and declared that they showed that no real effort was made to negotiate a new wage scale. The railroads, in preparing their rebuttal to Mr. Jewell's charges, said he had not presented a fair picture of the conferences. The Chicago & Eastern Illinois, the participating in what was admitted to be a general movement for wage reductions was prompted largely by its financial conditions, Homer T. Dick, general counsel, said. The road has been in the hands of a receiver for some time, Mr. Dick said and had not paid any dividends since 1913. In view of the fact that it was not making operating expenses, he declared it was necessary to reduce those expenses including the road's labor bill. The roads will continue their answer to Mr. Jewell's charges tomorrow.

IDEAL COMMUNITY MOVIE QUARTERS. YASNAYA, POLYANA, Russia.—In their search for total freedom, the community of young people established here last September with the intention of showing the world that the ideal life planned by Tolstol is possible has removed to Serpuchew, nearer Moscow.

There they have taken up a new tract of land of which there is plenty since the flight or death of the old landlords and the refusal of peasants to cultivate lands of land more than sufficient for their immediate needs. No outbreak of typhus in the village hastened their departure.

The choir, the normal strength of which is 32 voices has arrived here and are to give a series of concerts on behalf of the devastated regions whereby it is hoped to collect over 1,000,000 francs.

Calls In Democrats. The president later called in two Democratic senators, Smith of South Carolina and Kendrick of Wyoming, for a discussion of the treaty situation. At the same time the administration officials reiterated that the treaties were certain to be ratified but did not indicate whether additional Democratic voters were sought or the status of reservations was under consideration.

Suggestion of a British-American understanding for future concerted action was thrown into the senate debate by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, who read a statement regarding the conference results he said had been made by Paul D. Cravath, a New York attorney.

Mr. Cravath was quoted as saying he had been told, "by every member of the American delegation" that the conference resulted in an unwritten understanding between the United States and Great Britain of such a character "that both sides assume that in all future emergencies they can both count on having the very closest cooperation."

The accuracy of this assertion was promptly denied by Senator Lodge and by Senator Underwood of Alabama, Democratic leader and also a member of the delegation. Senator Underwood said he did not recall ever having met Mr. Cravath and Senator Lodge said he never talked with him on the subject. Both asserted positively and directly that so far as they knew no such understanding existed or ever had been discussed.

Senator Robinson argued that Mr. Cravath as well as Secretary Hughes and Elihu Root, the other delegates should be called before the foreign relations committee before the senate voted on ratification.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Senator McCumber, republican of North Dakota, chairman of the senate finance committee today announced his candidacy for reelection. Former Senator Albee J. Gronna last week was announced as an opponent. Senator McCumber said he would run as "straight, conservative republican" and added that true republicanism always stands for progress.

IS CALLED TO ATTEND LENINE Berlin, March 20.—Dr. Felix Klemperer, a widely known German specialist on internal diseases, has been summoned to Moscow to attend Premier Lenine, it was learned today.

AMERICAN LEGION NEWS NOTES

The American Legion of Ludlow, Vt., has made official report of the prowess of John Sheehan, overseas doughboy, who strangled to death a wild cat with his bare hands. Sheehan, wounded four times by the bob-cat, was rewarded with an $8 state bounty. The soldier and the beast came to blows in a remote mountain pass.

The American Federation of Labor will assist the American Legion in finding jobs for 700,000 unemployed service men, according to President Samuel Gompers. Twelve Governors have issued proclamations requesting citizens to observe March 20 as Legion Employment Day.

Fourteen states have already refused financial assistance to the move for a George Washington and World War Memorial Building in Washington, D. C. and 16 other states will follow suit according to the American Legion's legislative committee. The Legion opposes construction of the elaborate memorial at a time when thousands of ex-service men are jobless and in need.

A badly decomposed body found on the banks of the Cumberland River near Nashville, Tenn., was given a military burial by the American Legion when searchers found a Legion button and membership card in his clothing.

In Corning, N. Y., the American Legion is selling flour to get money for its relief work. "Help the Legion by Corning flour" is the selling motto.

When police in Nashville, Tenn., raided an alleged bootlegger, they found his liquor tightly locked in a safe, and appealed to the local American Legion post for manpower. The Legion called an expert overseas locksmith from its ranks. He cracked the safe and exposed 30 quarts.

Department of Justice operators and the American Legion, rounding up bogus army uniform wearers in Chicago, picked up a self-admitted outstanding hero of war. Investigation showed he had evaded registration for the draft. He was wearing, however, insignia of the 77th Division, stripes of a master sergeant, service and wound chevrons, marksmanship medals and American and foreign decorations.

Nine communities in each state will receive certificates of merit for exceptional work in providing employment for ex-service men from Hanford MacNider, commander of the American Legion. The awards will follow the Legion campaign for jobs culminating in Legion Employment Day March 20th.

Sick and wounded soldiers of the world war are receiving more than $1,000 a month from the famous Busch gardens in Pasadena. More than 40,000 adults have visited the gardens since last August when Mrs. Lily Busch began giving the revenue to the American Legion for the relief of destitute service men.

President Harding has recommended the creation of a commission to control the erection of American war memorials on the battlefields of Europe. Secretary Weeks, General Pershing, Commander Hanford MacNider and one senator and one representative would comprise the Harding commission.

New York will be the first state to give cash compensation to disabled, unemployed ex-service men. A fund of $1,000,000 will be appropriated by the legislature. Governor Miller has assured the American Legion, fostering the bill. Only sick or wounded men who have been out of work for thirty days will benefit.

Citizenship clubs for the benefit of young people for the discussion of current issues of the day will be formed by the American Legion Auxiliary in 4,500 communities in every state. Local units of the Auxiliary will sponsor the community clubs.

A proposal that the government issue a representative coin or a bill of small denomination bearing a typical American soldier's head has been made to the American Legion of Massachusetts. The coin in honor of the soldiers of '18 would be known as the "Doughboy Dollar."

The American Red Cross has contributed $35,000 to the American Legion, enabling the ex-service men's organization to retain 14 liaison representatives at the regional offices of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau.

PLANNING TO INTEREST WOMEN IN POLITICS

Harrisburg, Ill.—By the A. P.—The Woman's Republican club of Harrisburg, of which Mrs. James B. Blackman is president, is planning a campaign to interest women of the county in the primary and general elections this year.

The Woman's Culture club, a no-partisan organization to promote clean politics, led by Mrs. Blackman and Mrs. A. W. Lewis, also is planning to take an active interest in politics this year.

Six hundred college women of St. Louis have established a club home where they can hold regular meetings, gather for social affairs and entertain their friends.

REPUBLICAN HOUSE LEADERS PLANNING TO BRING UP BONUS

(Continued from Page One.) of the congressional committee and Representative Longworth of Ohio. They emphasized the change that had been made in the bill since the president's last letter to Mr. Fordney suggesting a sales tax or postponement of the legislation. Some stressed their desire to proceed under a suspension of the rules so as to cut off amendments which they believed would be offered with a view to embarrassing those in charge of the bill.

No Opposition by Harding. The president was represented as giving no indication as to his views on the bill and so desiring to be left free to pass judgment on it when it reached the white house. He was quoted as saying he had not had opportunity to study all of its provisions as fully as he might wish; also that he thought the responsibility was with congress at this time.

They characterized the certificate bank loan plan as a due bill-chain-check-borrow-money mode of payment and declared that it "was an insult to every world war veteran and a shameful discredit to congress and the nation."

Insisting that the bonus be paid out of taxes levied upon the "big incomes of millionaires and multimillionaires, and the conscienceless, excessive profits of the big business monopolies," the minority charged that President Harding and Secretary Mellon boldly offer a bribe to the world war veterans to espouse the cause of the money power in their efforts to establish as a part of our revenue system the vicious policy of a general sales tax.

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Read the Result Cincinnati, Ohio.—"I suffered for a year with nervous troubles and irregularities before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My back pained all the time and I was unfit for housework. I was worn out if I cooked a meal, and was unable to do my washing. My girl friends and my sister told me if I would take your Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills I would be relieved. After taking the first bottle I felt better, and neglected it awhile, but found I could not do my work until I was stronger. ## CANNOT IGNORE PERIL FROM YELLOW RACES

Such Is Warning of Henry T. Rainey Conched In Conservative Language—Four Power Pact Discussed at Annual Meeting of College Hill Club.

Henry T. Rainey of Carrollton, former congressman from the 20th district, made an address yesterday at the open meeting of the College Hill club, at the home of Mrs. Henry English, 844 West College avenue. "Give Us White Paper," was the theme of Mr. Rainey's address, in which he discussed the four power treaty, and world conditions. Marvelous changes, the speaker said, have come to pass in the last few years and they but give advance notice of the still greater changes that may be expected in the years to come.

For this, the annual open meeting of the club, seventy five or more people were present. Mrs. English and Mrs. H. M. Havenhill were the hostesses and had arranged for the program.

Mrs. D. P. Hueston, president of the club, called the assemblage to order and the minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Charles Hall. The program began with two songs by Miss Frederica Balch, of the College of Music, accompanied by Miss Marie Luke.

Following the very informing lecture by the speaker came a delightful social hour with refreshments.

Mrs. Hueston after extending cordial welcome to the guests of the day, asked that one of the hostesses preside and Mrs. English then briefly introduced Mr. Rainey, who for eighteen consecutive years was a representative of this district in congress.

Mr. Rainey said: "We sometimes find the greatest difficulty in making people realize how great have been the happenings in recent years, and so I intend to understand that this is a new era and that we have new conditions today and that new seas are ahead of us. The compass of old will not avail and now there are no stars to lead us."

"It was a year ago that sixty great fighting ships made up a procession ten miles long and returned from Cuba to Hampton Roads. As they passed the Mayflower each fired a salute and a little later the president of the United States addressed an assembly of 1,000 naval officers."

"It was just about a month ago that certain powerful nations met in Washington and there it was agreed that the U. S. should destroy six of its battleships that cost $40,000,000 apiece to build and equip. When this action was taken then the world recognized that something was being done, that changes were taking place."

"The four power treaty does not accomplish all we wished it might, but this is not a time to criticize. Instead, it is the time to applaud every advancement that leads toward peace. This four power pact provides for the destruction of certain ships and limits the production of capital ships. That's about all. Yet, that is a long step toward peace."

U. S. Fighting Nation.
"We sometimes do not like to believe it, but the U. S. has been a fighting nation. Sum up the years of the various wars in which this country has engaged and you will find the total runs to the significant figure of 100. All nations think that they are fighting for their honor."

"If I were in the senate I would vote to ratify this pact or for any other step that is on the way toward peace. This pact does not provide against the use of poison gas and yet the U. S. is credited with having developed the most deadly gas known to the world. It is said that two cylinders of this gas, dropped from an airplane in New York City, would annihilate one million people in two hours' time. The next war is to be fought with gas and under sea craft."

Referring further to present day conditions, Mr. Rainey said that there are more men under arms today than there were in 1913. He referred to the Bolsheviks of Russia, who have 2,000,000 men under arms, and the Turk and Greek who are at war. Then he referred to the warfare in Russia and in the Balkans and Asia Minor and in the center of China.

Discussing again the pact conditions, he made the significant statement that if war is averted on the Pacific in coming years it depends upon the faithfulness of the non-Christian nation, Japan.

"Hundreds of years ago certain wooden ships that Japan owns were taken out and displayed on the streets of Tokio. Recently since the agreements to this pact were made known, the Japanese repeated that performance and we can ask ourselves as to whether or not they meant it as a celebration of a diplomatic victory. If that be a fact, then there is danger ahead. Japan did not enter into the agreement of destroying war ships without the reservation of the largest ship she owns, the greatest fighting machine afloat. We have reserved to ourselves the right to make gas and to use aeroplanes, but the pact remains that great Japanese vessel can stand at the horizon's edge and still be in a position to destroy our fortifications at Panama."

"The people of China and of Russia constitute about one-fourth the population of the world and yet they were not represented at that peace conference and because they have no stable government. Today a great army is moving upon Shantung, an army of revolutionists, and the chances are it will mean the return there of the Japanese troops who are being withdrawn. That will mean the handling of Shantung's problems by outside powers for years to come."

Joy of Production Gone.
"In our life today we are likely to think of the great developments as having come about through the white race. More commodities are produced now in fifty years' time than was once true in a thousand years. That is not attributable to the white race but it came in the areas where coal and iron abound. The old individual joy of production is gone, naturally as machinery for production has been developed."

"China has more enormous supplies of coal and iron than we have in the U. S., and what is going to happen when China begins to use these supplies—China, with the cheapest possible labor, the rising tide of China and Japan will be a menace to the white race."

"A prominent Englishman was quoted the other day as saying that the pact as agreed upon averted a war upon the Pacific. If that is true did we not go far enough in relinquishing the weapons of war—that is, if the day is to come when the contest shall be between the yellow and the white races for the control of the Pacific."

Summing up the troublesome situation and the menace of the times, Congressman Rainey said that world peace cannot certainly come and continue until he who said to the waves "Peace be still" controls the hearts of men.

"After all," he said, "the important thing is what the people think. It is what the farmer who plows the long furrows, the laborer at his task, and the worker of the earth, think. That is important because those thoughts shape the events that come after. Fortunate indeed are we that 10,000,000 women in these recent years have come into new power thru the ballot and are dedicated to the cause of peace."

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Corn Rots, Soy Beans, European Corn Borer and Chinch Bugs.
These subjects will be discussed at the Farm Bureau office on Wednesday by two of the best men in the United States. We can't get men of this caliber just any day, and every farmer who possibly can, ought to hear what these men say. If you suspect your seed corn is not disease free, bring a sample to the office and let Prof. Hackleman tell you what the external characteristics indicate. If you do not know all about soybeans, he may be able to tell you what the experiment station and farmers have found out. If you care to find out what a real menace the European corn orer is, Prof. Flint will tell you. Prof. Hackleman speaks at 10:30 a. m. and Prof. Flint at 1 p. m. Both must leave at 2:30.

Decreased Production of Wool.
—The world average annual pre-war production was 3,157,888,470 pounds, the 1921 production 2,608,445,050, and the 1920 production 2,625,447,145. These figures indicate a tendency toward higher prices for wool.

Cooperative Commission Terms for Chicago and Peoria.
The directors have already been named for the terminal selling agency at Chicago, and the national board has authorized the I. A. A. to proceed immediately to organize one at Peoria. The Peoria market now serves ten counties in Illinois and is growing in importance. The central west last year shipped 265,000 cars of livestock to the Chicago market. The commissions paid for handling this business totaled $5,000,000. A co-operative firm will find Chicago a fertile field for work.

Spraying Orchards.
Richard Oxley, Lester Reed, C. R. Gibson and Clifton Daves are using dry lime sulphur as a dormant spray for scale. This is the season of the year when this spray should be applied.

Special Feature of Yesterday's Meeting.
—Especially mention should be made of the mass singing before and after the luncheon led by C. J. Wright, with Miss Wilma Crum at the piano. Homer Wright was also drafted for his entertaining solos. On the return to the Farm Bureau office Rev. W. H. Marbach showed a Near East film, "Alice in Hungerland."

Certified Seed Potatoes.
The Farm Bureau has encouraged one of our local firms to handle a carload of certified seed. Such seed has been inspected twice in the field by experts for plant disease and the diseased plants rogued out. This seed has also had one inspection in the bin. These are requirements in order to entitle potatoes to bear the Blue Seal. In the Red River Valley, certified seed invariably outyields common seed stock. We advise treating certified seed for scab, for some scabby potatoes might escape the bin inspection.

Acid Phosphate.
It will pay to make applications of either this or bonemeal to potato patches. We have arranged with one of the local elevators to handle this material regularly. Acid phosphate also shows results when used as a top dressing for wheat. Applications of 250 pounds per acre make a difference where wheat is inclined to grow rank and lodge, it will be well to try applications of either acid phosphate or some other form of phosphate.

Vaccinate Young Pigs.
A number of farmers let pigs get too large before vaccinating. This means an additional cost for serum. Many of our veterinarians are confident that vaccination before pigs are weaned is the right method of procedure.

Miss Kate Matthews, a London real estate dealer, is the only woman ever elected an Associate of the Auctioneers' Institute.

FOR SALE.

WANTED.
Cook at Oak Lawn sanitarium. 3-21-22.

WITH THE SICK

Mrs. Edward Nash of Reed-house entered Passavant hospital yesterday for treatment.

Lucille Riggs, daughter of County Clerk Riggs, is ill with scarlet fever at the family home on Grove street. During the period of quarantine Mr. Riggs will spend the time at the home of his brother, and his son Kent will be with him.

Mrs. B. W. Smith, who has been ill for the past two months at her home on West College avenue, is now somewhat improved. Charles P. Gillett, who has been a patient at Passavant hospital for a number of days, will probably return to his home on West College avenue today. Mr. Gillett has been ill with a heart affection.

LISBON, March 20.—One hundred and seventy syndicalists are being held in Fort Sao Juliao Barro by the government, charged with causing bomb explosions. The men refuse to answer questions and have begun a hunger strike.

CHILD WELFARE WORK THEME OF ADDRESS

Miss Mary Humphrey, 244 Cambridge street, will address the findings.

At the Congregational church community forum Sunday night Miss Mary Humphrey of Springfield made an interesting address on child welfare work. Miss Humphrey is a member of the committee which is seeking to furnish facts for the department of public welfare, concerning the overlapping work done for children in this state.

Before the address Fred Meyer of the School for the Blind played an artistic war two violin solos, "The Swan" and "Meditation."

The committee of which Miss Humphrey is a member is made up of volunteers. The survey work was practically planned and done thoroughly. The speaker said that there are 111 institutions in the state caring for orphans, nearly all of them being under state supervision.

It is the belief of the committee after careful investigation, that children if placed in suitable private homes are better off than under institutional care. The investigation included data relating to the health of children. As a result of the investigation, the state department is expecting to make some changes in its method in the handling of dependent children, and more careful efforts are to be made in placing children in homes where somewhat adapted to the surroundings.

This lecture was the last of the very interesting community forum series for this season.

George Harvey of Merritt journeyed up to the city yesterday.

MEMORIAL FOR DR. MOREY

A number of the friends of the late A. B. Morey have made possible a fund for the erection of a memorial home. Dr. Morey was for more than 30 years associated with the work of the Presbyterian church in Jacksonville and in a very definite way identified with the religious and literary life of this city. It is a fitting thing that some of his friends have joined in this memorial project.

Henry Strahle of Merritt journeyed up to the city Monday afternoon to business.

ELECTION FIGURES SHOW NO CHANGE

Primary Vote Canvassed at Council Session Monday Night—Aldermen Hold Get-to-Gether Talk Fest.

At the regular meeting of the city council Monday night returns from the recent election were canvassed. Particular interest attached to the returns from the second ward. Unofficial returns had indicated the nomination of Basil Sorrells by a majority of two over Clarence Swaby as the Republican nominee for alderman. The official canvass made no change in the returns.

Mayor Crabtree, City Clerk Scott and all aldermen were present. On the basis of the returns the canvass will be:

Election Figures.
First Ward—Republican, John W. Baptist; Democratic—Thomas Flynn.

Second Ward—Republican Basil Sorrells; Democrat, C. O. Swift.

Third Ward—Republican, John D. Cain; Democratic, William E. Boston.

Fourth Ward—Republican, T. A. Chapin; Democratic, A. L. Taylor.

In the second ward Mr. Swift received 15 votes; in the third ward five were cast for Mr. Boston and in the fourth ward two for Mr. Taylor. These being the highest votes cast for any Democrats, makes them the party nominees.

General Business.
A communication was read at the council from residents near the old J. St. L. right of way in the southeast part of town, objecting to land there being used as a dumping ground. On motion of Alderman Cain with a second by Alderman Lonergan, this matter was referred to Street Commissioner P. J. White.

Claims were ordered paid and the matter of sidewalks was again discussed. It was decided to have C. H. Elliott, an employee of the Jacksonville Engineering Co., complete a list of walks which have been ordered but not laid.

The question of selling a number of lots that belong to the city was referred to Alderman Lonergan for investigation and report.

Alderman Rowe called attention to a rule from the city health department that compels residents along streets where water mains are available to connect with the sewerage system. This matter was referred to the health warden for a further statement.

"The Era of Good Feeling."
Mr. Sorrells and Mr. Swaby of the second ward were present to see returns canvassed and when there appeared to be no change in the results Mr. Swaby immediately congratulated his opponent.

Mayor Crabtree took occasion at this show of good feeling to call upon Mr. Swaby and Mr. Sorrells for remarks. Each made complimentary reference to the other and Mr. Sorrells said he expected to work in harmony with other members of the city council for the good of the city.

Then the mayor called upon the other aldermen, who will again become candidates. Mr. Flynn expressed the hope that some means will be found for starting public work in order to give employment to men who need it. Mr. Chapin commented upon the harmonious way in which the council had worked for the past two years, seldom a dissenting vote being recorded.

Mr. Cain spoke of the fact that all the council's business had been done in an open and above-board way and said that if re-elected he would again give his best services to the city.

The mayor also called for remarks from A. E. Williamson, retiring alderman, whom the mayor said had done excellent service for the city. Mr. Williamson expressed some regret over leaving his associates and indicated that he would look back upon the endeavor to keep the city's interests uppermost in his mind.

Altogether this symposium of talks made up quite a council love feast and was indicative of the spirit which has pervaded all council sessions during the present administration. Br of remarks were also made by Walter Huff, Marcus Hueltel and P. J. White, who happened to be among those present.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

A contract was signed by the Jacksonville High school yesterday afternoon for the staging of a dual track meet with Springfield high school on April 22nd. The meet will be one of the important events of the track season and will attract considerable attention because of the keen rivalry between the local school and the Capitol City high. A new feature of the meet will be the golf and tennis event to be staged in the morning. The track meet event will be held in the afternoon. The meet will be held in Springfield.

The moving picture at the high school tonight is one of unusual interest, being a dramatization of the well known "Snow White," a fairy tale of universal appeal and popularity. The picture is a five reel production and the characters are taken by popular screen stars.

The high school office is busy this week checking closely the records of the senior class so that enough credits for graduation will have an opportunity to do extra work for the required amount of credit.

S. W. NICHOLS WRITES FROM FAR SOUTHWEST

Tombstone, Ariz., March 11.
Dear Journal:—

It was with a sincere regret that we left Tucson after a pleasant sojourn there of five weeks. The Congress Hotel had come to be a second home to us, every one was so kind and sociable.

We had quite a variety of people there. One man came there all prostrated with asthma, hardly able to walk or breathe. They had an arrangement on the roof for a sunbath and that he took daily, undressed, and within a month he was walking around as large as life and no apparent trouble at all. He is a dealer in family supplies in Chicago and gave me an interesting account of the way the pure food people do things in company with the city authorities. They have a municipal judge who is smiling and suave and as relentless as the tides. Eggs must be labeled just what they are, storage or farm, and must be candied at least each two days or daily and if a bad one is sold the customer may report it to the pure food people and judge who hates before him the offender and the fine is fifty to two hundred dollars.

On one occasion a man complained that he had been moving and had been too busy to handle his eggs properly. He said he had moved the past two days and begged for leniency but unfortunately the eggs had been sold four days previous and fifty dollars and costs were demanded.

He said the courts were immovable and were determined to see that the people bought pure goods.

Another man came there from Montana suffering badly with asthma and in three days received appreciable relief and was feeling fine but the next day, by some means he managed to take cold and became most pitifully homesick and said he was going to get back to Montana with all its snow, ice and cold just as soon as possible.

So many people think they can emigrate to Arizona, do just as they please, and then get well right away. The climate here will not work miracles any more than any other locality. It is especially important to be out of doors as far as possible and at night to occupy a sleeping porch is always a good thing for those suffering with lung trouble. And another fact is so strange. In Tucson for about three or four months of the year the weather is fearfully hot in the day time though the nights are generally cool and agreeable, and it is this very hot weather that is the very best medicine for the sufferers.

R. L. Pyatt Doing Fine.

R. L. Pyatt seemed to us in March last year incurable. He said when the hot weather came he bared his back to the boiling sun and stood it right along and today one would hardly know he had been sick at all and this is a very general experience.

The night before we left we had a very delightful Jax reunion at Mr. Pyatt's home; he and his two bright, lovely daughters were there, Mrs. Pontius and Miss May Lambert, daughter and myself, and we spent a very happy evening long to be remembered. Every one was merry and lively and the hours passed swiftly away.

After a time spent happily at the Pyatt residence Mr. Pyatt had to go to his duties as night clerk at the Santa Rita Hotel and all the rest of us repaired to the home of Dr. Willerton, not many blocks distant, and enjoyed a visit there. We escorted Mrs. Pontius to her home, not far distant, and then went to our several homes.

And now we are back again in dear old Tombstone, and I recall so vividly the day, January 8, '21, when I first landed here coughing my head off and so weak with the pleurisy I could hardly get about and for our special benefit an unusually cold, severe wind prevailed for several days and I was completely disgusted and asked why they had advised us to seek such a locality as this.

In six days that cough practically subsided but still my watchful daughter would hardly permit me to stick my nose out of the house lest I take cold or overdo myself, but the tenth day I arose early, before she was stirring, or at least before I could hear any sounds of life in her room, and slipped out and walked over a mile with perfect ease. I thought I must be dreaming walking that way after going at a snail's pace for nearly a year.

I could have walked farther but was afraid of being caught so turned in but from that day forward we took more or less exercise in the open right along.

Population dwindles.
This is an old time place, dwindled from sixteen thousand to fifteen hundred inhabitants, but it still has in it some choice spirits. The Congregational church is like a haven to the community and then there are the Episcopal and Catholic churches each doing good work.

The pastor of the Congregational church when I was here before was Mr. Stark but he went away and was succeeded by Rev. Thomas Armstrong and it is a very great pleasure to note the high standard he and his estimable wife have in the church and the community generally. Mr. Armstrong is a peculiarly wide awake, energetic man, all things to all men, like the apostle Paul, capable in the pulpit and faithful as a spiritual shepherd.

In his work he is most ably and faithfully assisted by his good wife who is possessed with abundant common sense and untiring industry. The church is surely fortunate in their leadership. Since we were here they have installed a Delco electric light system for the church and parsonage adjacent, and one of the good lady workers of the church said they had to pay for it.

Our stay here is truly pleasant in many ways as we are so cordially greeted by the good friends we made the past year. Almost every time we venture out we meet some one who remembers us pleasantly. I have formed an especially pleasant friendship with the railroad men who are a whole souled, jolly set.

I delight in going down to the station before time for the train to go out, for it starts here, and visit with Mr. Struthers, the worthy engineer, Mr. Sparks, the conductor, Mr. Westervelt, the excellent ticket agent, the fireman and the whole crew and all about the place.

I am so glad to see signs of renewed activity in business. Now that the copper market is recovering from the slump of the past year and surplus stocks have been worked off there is a fair show for the reopening of the mines in this locality and a considerable resumption of work.

Many Cattle Men.

Then, too, there are many cattle men in this region and the improvement in the live stock market will be a benefit to them. People shouldn't think this place is all that its name indicates. The county seat being here makes more or less activity in addition to

New Books at the Public Library

Landon, Herman, "The Gray Phantom"—In this exciting novel even of the richest men in the world and one beautiful girl are doomed to die—unless they part with half their fortunes. The greatest villain the big city ever knew sat back in his chair in a safe retreat and laughed at the police and the scientists who were trying to avert the mysterious fate hanging over his seven victims. This author has written a tale that will make you forget you are living in a humdrum world, but you will take part in the last moving events with scarcely a breathing space from the moment of the dramatic beginning where a beautiful woman is mysteriously murdered right before a gay theatre audience, to the astonishing finish. The novel is an enthralling admixture of mystery, human and love interest, and efficient detective work.

Dixon, Winifred Hawkrige, "Westward Hoboes"—This is a book telling of the ups and downs of frontier traveling by motor. Two Boston girls, with an intention to sketch, to write and to drift just when the spirit moved them, shipped their automobile to Galveston and then proceeded, by automobile, by rail and by horseback, through Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, then north to the Canadian Rockies, and then by a northern route back home. The story of their journey is told with much humor, and a keen appreciation, not only of the pleasures of the road, but of the many hardships and mishaps. It is an unusual story of an unusual journey and the author has a remarkable gift for description and has included fourth-eight of the finest western photographs ever taken. The writer has a fine appreciation of the beauty and glory of the West and a brave heart for adventure and has written this in a lively and vivid manner that is altogether charming. This book is one of the leaders in travel—a real top-angler.

Dewey, John, "Human Nature and Conduct"—This book includes the series of three lectures delivered on the West Memorial Foundation at Leland Stanford, Jr., University in the spring of 1918. In many respects it is the most interesting book that the places of business. The lady manager of the Tourist Hotel told me she turned away nine people one day this week and she has a rather commodious house too and there are several other very worthy hotels in the place.

One noted character here is Judge Lowwood. I must try to see him and ascertain if he is not related to the illustrious Judge Lowwood of the early days of Jacksonville. The gentleman of this place has much to do with children neglected to a greater or less degree. He is much like the well known jurist of Denver who does so much for the rising generation.

Speaking of Tucson, I forgot to speak of a final call I had very enjoyably with Father Connolly, formerly of our county, and to whom I have already referred. He took me into his new church, nearing completion and surely he has good cause for pride and satisfaction in the structure.

How in the world he managed to get such a building for $36,000 is a mystery, or rather, I should say, an evidence of superior management. I need not enter in any more description of it as it has already been given the readers of the Journal. They expect to dedicate it Easter Sunday and I should like wonderfully well to be there, but it is impracticable, as a week from today we are hoping to be in Los Angeles.

S. W. Nichols.

Mr. Dewey has written, dealing as it does with the actions and motives of men, very directly and concretely. The author sets forth the belief that habit combines in itself biological factors and social conditions, and that an undertaking of habit had of different types of habit is the key to individualized mental activity. But the proposition set forth is that they are secondary to habit, so that individual mind can be understood in the concrete only as a system of beliefs, desires and purposes which are formed in the interaction of biological attitudes with the environment.

The Rice Method for rupture is known the whole world over. You can now see this Method demonstrated and have a Rice Appliance fitted to you. Absolutely no charge unless you are satisfied to keep the Appliance adjusted to you and see how perfectly and comfortably it holds. No harsh, deep-pressing springs; nothing to gouge the flesh and make you sore. Can be worn night and day with positive comfort. Soft, rubberlike composition pad, any degree of pressure required.

Don't wear a truss all your life when thousands have reported cures through using the Rice Method. Why suffer the burden of rupture if there is a chance to be free from truss-wearing forever? ## STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, March 20.—Recent advance and comprehensive operations in the stock market were resumed today. Public participation apparently contributed appreciably to the turnover of approximately 1,175,000 shares.

The movement lacked uniformity, many comparatively obscure or low priced issues mounting to new high records while some leaders were subjected to incessant selling pressure. Buying of rails most effective during the intermediate period, exerted a stabilizing influence.

Investments as well as a junior share of that division registered extreme advances of 1 to 3 points with independent steels.

Another reaction in foreign exchanges with acute weakness in the German rate was offset in part by the continued ease and abundance of local money rates and freer offerings of time funds, particularly paper. In the open market transactions at 3 per cent rate ruled.

Much news over the week end favored the bull account. Better business conditions were reflected in the further decrease of idle cars and the investment inquiry here and in the middle west in excess of new underwriting which included numerous municipal offerings.

The reversal in international currencies carried demand bills on London two cents under last week's final quotation.

A new high for Victory 4 1/2 at $100.88, featured the bond market.

Total sales (par value) aggregated $16,891,000.

BUTTER SUPPLY LIGHT

By Associated Press. Chicago, March 20.—Unsettled markets in the west had a restraining influence on the butter market today and this with the hand to mouth policy of the buyers took some of the life out of the market. Supplies were light, keeping the market from becoming easy and the general tone of the market could be called unsettled with a firm undertone. Fine butter was readily sold. The "fresh cars of centralized" were a little more plentiful, but there was a good demand. Storage cars found a fair demand.

LIVESTOCK PRODUCERS
CONVENE IN PEORIA

Will Take Steps to Establish Co-operative Livestock Commission Firm at Stock Yards in Peoria

Peoria, March 21.—A meeting of live stock producers representing ten counties is being held here today under the auspices of the Illinois Agricultural Association to take the first steps toward the establishment of a producer-owned and operated co-operative live stock commission firm at the stock yards here.

The firm when organized, will be one of a chain of like associations to be established by the National Live Stock Producers Association, a national co-operative organization of producers growing out of "the committee of fifteen" plan.

The first of such co-operative commission firms was established on Jan. 2 at the East St. Louis stock yards, for the past month this firm has stood first or second among the fifty commission companies at the yards in amount of business transacted.

The Illinois Agricultural Association will take the leading part in the organization of the commission association here, upon authority from the national live stock organization.

Last year's receipts at the Peoria market were: Hogs, 423,882; cattle, 40,673; calves, 1,571; sheep, 6,786. The market draws from ten nearby counties. Like commission firms are to be established this spring at Chicago, Buffalo and Indianapolis.

The Illinois Agricultural Association and the ninety-five county farm bureaus of the state are behind the co-operative live stock movement at the Peoria, East St. Louis and Chicago markets.

JOHN B. TURNER IS LAID TO REST MONDAY

Brother of Mrs. Mary Turner Carriel of This City Was Buried Monday—Was Son of Late Prof. J. B. Turner.

Mrs. Mary Turner Carriel received a message Sunday telling of the death of her brother, John Baldwin Turner, which occurred Saturday evening at the home in Butler, Ill.

The deceased was a son of the late Professor J. B. Turner and Rodolphus Killeb Turner. He was born in the old Turner home, 1152 West College avenue in this city, city, 1837, and was therefore past eighty-five years of age at the time of his death. He was the only surviving one of Prof. and Mrs. Turner's six sons, Mrs. Carriel now being the sole survivor of the family.

In 1860 Mr. Turner was graduated from Illinois College, and went immediately with his younger brother and classmate, William Henry, to Butler, Ill. His life since then has been spent on the large livestock and grain farm he prized so highly.

Mr. Turner was a man of strong individuality and high ideals and his reputation in the community in which he lived so many years was an enviable one. He is survived by his wife, one son, Rodolphus and a grandchild, beside a number of nieces and nephews and their children, to whom he was a father and friend following the death of his brother William in 1882.

Mr. Turner had been in ill health for the past year and peacefully fell asleep without pain or suffering, to awaken with the dear ones on the other side, father, mother, son and five brothers, all having preceded him in death.

The funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the family home in Butler, and interment was made in the cemetery there.

MAUD MABEL HOWDEN

Maud Mabel Howden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jones of Jacksonville entered into life eternal, Feb. 27th, in this city, after a long painful illness, borne with rare courage and patience.

She was born in Dixon, Illinois, in the year 1880 received her education in the schools of Jacksonville, graduated in music here and afterwards was most successful as a teacher. She married Mr. Howden of Louisiana, Mo., and went there to reside. She was baptized and confirmed in Calvary Episcopal church, Louisiana and was an active, earnest and faithful member of the church. Her special gift was in the home which she adorned with loyal service and loving devotion. Beautiful in person, gifted in mind, she united a charm of manner which endeared her to those who knew her.

Well said the Hebrew writer: "Many daughters have done virtuously but thou excellest them all."

"Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates."

Her life will be a blessed memory to her husband and relatives, as well as to those who knew her.

ENTHUSIASTIC CHAPEL
SERVICE HELD AT I. C.

Endowment Clock Moved Forward at Chapel Exercises Monday Morning.

An enthusiastic chapel service was held at Illinois College Monday morning when President Hammelkamp gave an account of the recent Chicago banquet and the endowment clock was moved forward. The president expressed his sincere appreciation of the generous subscription of $3,726 made by the freshman and sophomore classes and new members of the faculty to the endowment fund on Friday.

The president also reported subscriptions to the amount of $5,000 so that the clock was moved forward to a total of $348,500. This now leaves about $27,000 which must be raised before commencement in order to complete the total of $375,000. This task must, therefore, be accomplished within three months. The trustees and the special endowment committee will put forth every effort during these remaining weeks to reach the goal.

Many alumni and friends who have already given will probably have to add to their subscriptions in order that many thousands of dollars may not be lost by failure to reach the end within the time limit set by the Rockefeller Board of New York.

Back of Hupmobile long life and reliability is the fact that its important parts and its precise shop practice, are similar, and as fine, as are employed in manufacturing the highest priced cars.
